Dear Tom:

Your letter of April 21 was most flattering, but I have no high ambitions in the direction you indicate. My present job is non-political and I remain such though I am still a citizen in good standing in the State. I now vote out in Suffolk since I have sold my house in New York, but I am still a property owner at Lloyd Neck. In any event, many thanks for writing me.

Clover joins me in all best wishes.

Sincerely,
